(This register did, apparently, contain numbers up to 500 - instead of ending with number 496. But two pages, comprising four entries having been accidentally omitted to be filled up - (in the Duplicate Register from No. 491. to & including 494.) The last page of them both shows 24 entries removed from the 16 numbers of entries correspond - viz - by ending with No. 496 - In this Register the two pages were filled up correctly - but in the Duplicate Register - (delivered to the Superintendent Registrar - Sept. 1861.) the transposition of the entries on the 2 pages 24.6. 24.7. appears - In that Duplicate Register - the numbers (the 4th) entered in the last two pages) go up to 500. This explanation has been entered, Sept. 2nd, 1861 -
