Reverend Sir,

I am directed by the Registrar-General to inform you that an application has been made to him for the correction of Entry No. 188 in your Marriage Registers (June Quarter, 1934) by the Superintendent Registrar of Dartford Registration District on behalf of the man married and the applicant has been informed that it rests with you to decide whether you will make the correction. A printed memorandum describing the manner in which the correction should be made is enclosed for your guidance, should you feel justified in effecting it.

In support of the application a certificate has been submitted of the birth on 1st October, 1905, of Charles Bernard Norton and it is alleged that this certificate relates to the birth of the man married.

In the present instance the marginal note should read:—"In entry No. 188, col. 2 for "Bernard Charles" read "Charles Bernard otherwise Bernard Charles". Corrected on the by me in the presence of and the parties married". (See examples attached).

When the correction has been effected a duly certified copy of the entry with the marginal note should be forwarded to this Office.
